DETAILED ACTION

1. This action is responsive to the paper(s) filed 12/09/02.

Claim Rejections - 35 USC § 101

1. 35 U.S.C. 101 reads as follows:

Whoever invents or discovers any new and useful process, machine, manufacture, or composition of matter, or any new and useful improvement thereof, may obtain a patent therefor, subject to the conditions and requirements of this title.

Claims 44-46 are rejected under 35 U.S.C. 101 because the claimed invention is directed to non-statutory subject matter.

Claims 44-46 set forth method steps (processor and encoded memory) which do not result in a useful and tangible result. Simply identifying requested rebate(s) and preventing redemption when warranted does not accomplish a useful and tangible result. These method steps are merely preparatory, falling short of issuing the user with a rebate (certificate) or performing the redemption (transfer of value) to the user when the business rules call for allowing the rebate to be carried out. Applicant should include the useful and tangible steps of rebate issuance or redemption to avoid such a rejection.

Claim Rejections - 35 USC § 103

2. The following is a quotation of 35 U.S.C. 103(a) which forms the basis for all obviousness rejections set forth in this Office action:

(a) A patent may not be obtained though the invention is not identically disclosed or described as set forth in section 102 of this title, if the differences between the subject matter sought to be patented and the prior art are such that the subject matter as a whole would have been obvious at the time the invention was made to a person having ordinary skill in the art to which said subject matter pertains. Patentability shall not be negated by the manner in which the invention was made.

3. Claims 44-46 are rejected under 35 U.S.C. 103(a) as being unpatentable over Buffalo News in view of Holda-Fleck (US5729693). Buffalo News teaches that several rebates/promotions can be associated with the same purchased product. A customer may make the qualifying product purchase and be offered multiple rebate opportunities, including rebate(s) from a manufacturer and rebate(s) from the retailer. Holda-Fleck teaches the well known practice of limiting offers to one per household [col 3 lines 55-61]. Holda-Fleck suggests using a person's telephone number to identify the customer's household and to prevent redemption of multiple rebates associated with that same household. It would have been obvious to one of ordinary skill at the time of the invention to have limited the number of offers/rebates of Buffalo News and to have taken steps, such as by comparing the household identity of a requested rebate to a list of previously redeemed offers associated with that household, in order to enforce the policy. It would have been obvious to one of ordinary skill at the time of the invention to have used a database to manage the lists of rebates made and to search for duplicate household rebate requests by using household address, so as to prevent multiple rebate redemption.

Allowable Subject Matter

4. Claims 1-28, 34-43 and 47-52 are allowable.

Response to Arguments

5. Applicant's arguments with respect to the claims have been considered but are moot in view of the new ground(s) of rejection.

Conclusion

6. Applicant's amendment necessitated the new ground(s) of rejection presented in this Office action. Accordingly, THIS ACTION IS MADE FINAL. See MPEP § 706.07(a). Applicant is reminded of the extension of time policy as set forth in 37 CFR 1.136(a).

A shortened statutory period for reply to this final action is set to expire THREE MONTHS from the mailing date of this action. In the event a first reply is filed within TWO MONTHS of the mailing date of this final action and the advisory action is not mailed until after the end of the THREE-MONTH shortened statutory period, then the shortened statutory period will expire on the date the advisory action is mailed, and any extension fee pursuant to 37 CFR 1.136(a) will be calculated from the mailing date of the advisory action. In no event, however, will the statutory period for reply expire later than SIX MONTHS from the date of this final action.
